

Recycling at home

Recycling

 Food waste - for composting	 Residual waste - for combustion	 Papir and carton - for recycling	 Plastic packaging - for recycling	 Glass- and metal packaging - for recycling	 Textiles - for reuse	 Items for reuse	 Electric and electronic waste	 Hazardous waste
 Food leftovers, fruit and vegetable peel	 Dog stool and diapers	 News paper and magazines	 Plastic flowerpot	 Aluminium foil and - packaging	 Clothes	 Furniture	 Electrical toys	 Impregnated wood
 Bread and pastery	 Vacuum cleaner bags	 Advertising magazines	 Plastic packaging	 Bottles and jars of glass	 Shoes	 Books	 Cell phones	 Paint and varnishes
 Tea bags, coffee filter and coffee grounds	 Cooled ash and charcoal	 Envelopes	 Plastic bottles e.g. shampoo, ketchup etc.	 Cans	 Towels	 Tableware	 Shoes with lights	 Glue
 Fish and shellfish	 Candles and cigarets	 Beverage carton	 Plastic cans and plastic boxes	 Metal corks and -lids	 Curtains	 Bicycles	 Shaver	 Light bulbs
 Meat and bones	 Broken toys without electronics	 Carton packaging	 Plastic bags	 Soda og beer cans without "pant"	 Bed sheets	 Ski equipment	 Wires	 All batteries
 Eggshell and nuts	 Glossy wrapping paper	 Toilet rollers	 Metal tubes	 Candle capsules of metal	 Working electronics	 Computers	 Whitespirit
 Paper towels and napkins	 Very smudged plastic and paper	 Deliver your corrugated cardboard free of charge at HRS				 Appliances
Degradable waste only	Please reduce your residual waste	Remember to participate in Returkartonglatteriet	Wash/wipe off excess dirt	Glass- and metal packaging can be recycled over and over	All textiles must be clean and dry. Deliver in closed plastic bags	Can someone else use your stuff?	Deliver your electric and electronic waste for free.	Deliver 1.000 kg of hazardous waste for free.
 Bin with brown lid	 Bin with dark gray lid	 Bin with blue lid	 Bin with light grey lid	 Bin with orange lid	 UFF/Fretex	 Secondhand-stores	 HRS or at a store that sells EE-waste	 HRS

This guide gives you a quick introduction to recycling.

Further questions?

Contact us. We would like to help you to be a champion in recycling.